FROM THEIR ROYAL MAJESTIES —IREL AND ILEANA—

Unto all who come by these letters, warm wishes in these the growing and abundant days of Spring.

As with all things in Spring, many changes are about in Our lands. As you may have noted The Outlandish Herald has changed hands. We would thank Lord Alwyn of Kittisford for his fine service as kingdom chronicler. His majesty, having served as a past chronicler, knows of the many hats this office requires, thus appreciating the labors all the more. Three cheers for Lord Alwyn and his service to Our realm. We welcome The Honourable Lady Helena the Fortunate once again to the helm of The Outlandish Herald. We know that as in the past, her coming service will prove up to the task.

While on the subject of officer changes, We need to address a couple more items. At Our Coronation Maestra Francesca stepped into the office of Seneschal of the Outlands. We thank Baron Lambert de Sur for his long and diligent service. We also ask that all of Our subjects to whatever degree give Francesca any and all help she may require in her new duties. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Lord Johann of the Northern Moors has expressed a desire to step down. We would ask for any gentles with an interest in this position to send a resume to Ourselves and Mistress Francesca. A decision will be made in the near future, so time is of the essence.

Her Majesty and I wish to thank and commend all of the brave and hearty souls that withstood whatever Mother Nature could deal out at Grand Outlandish and Brigands Bizarre. The weather may have won this war, but as always the Outlands wins the good times! Our warmest thanks go unto the Barony of al-Barran and Their Excellencies Needham and Susan for the extremely generous donation at Grand Outlandish. It's generosity like this that make Our time on the the throne all the easier. Our thanks again.

Unto the many good gentles who made the long trek to the 30th Year Celebration, Our thoughts were with you. I'm sure a fine time was had by all. Our thanks go to Mistress Kyriel of Windhover Cliffs for being Our ambassador to this grand occasion. We wish to also thank Alfheim and Adeline, Baron and Baroness of Borealis in Antir, for being the liaison to Our realm. Here's to a another 30 years of the Society!

Preparations for the 25th Pennsic War are well under way. We hope to see the event well attended by our populace. His Majesty will be there for a larger part of the week and Her Majesty will most likely be flying in for the final weekend.

We wish to announce that Her Majesty's Queens Prize Tournament to be held on the kingdom weekend in September is in the planning stages. We would ask that any interested in aiding in this worthy endeavor, to contact Ourselves or Lady Marie, Minister of Arts and Sciences, as soon as possible so that this event may be as successful as in the past.

OUTLANDS ANNIVERSARY

Countess Ælfæd of Duckford, Walker of the Way

The Kingdom of the Outlands has entered the eleventh year of its sovereignty. June 14 marked our tenth anniversary. The Crown Tournament held this July will be our 22nd.

Still the Outlands has not been a Kingdom for half its life. We were a principality nine years, and an organized region with events, officers, and a Lord of the Outlands tournament for nearly three before that. The Outlands pre-dates every other principality except An Tir, and when lands which have been kingdoms longer than we have were yet unformed and unnamed, the Outlands had a thriving life and culture. Only four kingdoms filled the Known World when Gunwaldt was made first Prince of the Outlands--The West, East, Middle and Atenveldt, of which we were a part. Meridies became a kingdom that summer, and so they are nineteen years old, but they only had three princes before their split from Atenveldt. Caid and Ansteorra followed before long. The Outlands grew to be over half of Atenveldt, and still we stayed and supported our parent kingdom. Very often the newsletter and most of the kingdom officers were in what is now the Outlands, and certainly if we count Artemisia in this history (as Artemisia was originally Outlands), there were many years of Atenveldt prosperity which were contributed to by the skill and energy of people in and from Loch Salann, Caerthe, Lonely Mountain/Anliepic Dun, and al-Barran, in A.S. XII and following. If anyone ever says to you, "The Outlands is ten years old," remind them that the Outlands is nearly twenty-five years old, and some of its local groups are even older.

I want to mention some things I've learned about the Outlands' reputation. Of course being an Outlander I can never REALLY know what it looks like from the outside but I've been privileged to get some glimpses. At corporate level, the Outlands is considered the easiest Kingdom assignment for an ombudsman. We're considered least likely to need assistance with an internal problem, or to have to be talked to about illegalities or questionable practices. Following various interkingdom events, I've heard reports from coordinators and royalty that Outlanders are considered fun, responsible and helpful. Visitors to the Outlands have reported that our people are friendly, welcoming and generous. After the first few years the neighbors discovered we couldn't be bullied but must be dealt with as an equal kingdom, and we earned that reputation without bullying and without rudeness. As far as I can tell, we are the kingdom most likely to have enemies become friends, both externally and internally.

Some of the things we set out to do when we became a kingdom have been accomplished admirably. Our body of rules and regulations is still minimal, even after a decade. Our standards for peerage are high. We have guarded the integrity and confidentiality of the peerage circles so that the Crown is well advised without gossip, slander or infighting. Those not involved in such things may not appreciate the value of this accomplishment, but in the known world it is a rare treasure. The Crown travels and is supported in this by donations from the groups. In some kingdoms this tradition has never existed.

Our relationship with Calontir has been a joy. When Countess Adelith spoke of this at Artan's Pelican ceremony there were tears all 'round. The Midrealm and Atenveldt were distant and foreign to one another, but Calontir and the Outlands have a special friendship.

I am grateful to have been the first Queen of the Outlands. I'm proud of my part in the Outlands' history, and happy that so many of those I worked with in years long past are still actively contributing to the peace and prosperity of this land. More than anything, though, I'm glad that those who joined The Kingdom of the Outlands in recent years can go out into the world and say with confident pride, "I am from the Outlands."

FROM THE KINGDOM SENESCHAL

Unto the populace of these great Outlands, greetings from Maestra Francesca di Pavia, new acting Kingdom Seneschal.

I pray this missive finds all well and enjoying the summer season. Allow me to introduce myself. I am Francesca di Pavia, Mistress of the Pelican, and a member of the Society for some nine years. I was appointed by Their Majesties, Irel and Illeana, to succeed Baron Lambert as Seneschal of the Outlands, and I assumed that office at morning Court on the Sunday of Coronation weekend. Thanks to Baron Lambert for his years of service in this office, and I wish him much enjoyment of his well-earned retirement.

Sir Kragon, Countess Elisheva and The Honourable Lady Katrine will continue in their functions as Regional Deputies. I will continue to serve as the regional officer for Colorado directly, as I did in the previous administration. Please do not hesitate to contact any of us with questions or problems. In addition, Her Ladyship Katrine will serve as my principal deputy. Her role in the Seneschallate will be very large. She will continue to maintain the Kingdom Calendar, and in addition will take over the Planning Calendar and the acceptance of bids for Kingdom events. Please send all event forms and all Calendar-related information directly to her (address listed on officers page). As Assistant Seneschal, she is fully empowered to act for the office. Please know that when you are speaking to Her Ladyship, you are speaking to the Office of the Kingdom Seneschal as fully as you would be if you were speaking to me.

My first goal for the Kingdom Seneschallate is to improve the lines of communication between us all. Should you have a question or problem, your first step should be to talk to your local Seneschal or other officer. If that person doesn't know the answer, one or both of you should then get in touch with the appropriate Kingdom officer or deputy. I am available by mail, phone, or email (information listed on the Officers page), and will be at as many events as possible, and I am here to help. Please don't hesitate to contact me.

Bids are needed for November Coronation! If your group would like to host this grand event, please contact Her Ladyship Katrine. She will let you know what information is needed. I would be most interested in seeing this event take place in a group that has not hosted a Kingdom event in some time. Please, get your bids in soon!

I look forward to serving my Kingdom and Crown in this new capacity.

In Service,
Francesca

As of yet I have received only a few offers. Prospective candidates should possess some knowledge of the rules for submission and understand the administrative functions of the job. Having an administrative background will help immensely. Please contact me.

FROM THE EARL MARSHAL

Greetings, I do not yet have all my reports for the second quarter of 1996 from the assorted Knight Marshals. Authorizing marshals - You have been lax in getting reports to both myself and the Minister of the Lists, Lady Triaria. To all of you - get those in. Now onto the real topics in this missive: female armor, non-fighting marshals, and blow calibration.

On female armor. Currently, protection for the pelvic area is strongly recommended by the Society standards. It has come to the attention of the assorted Earl Marshals that this may not be enough. It is not protection of the genitalia, but protection of the ovaries and uterus that has become the concern. A well struck blow in an unprotected pelvic region has a good chance of causing the uterine wall to separate from the surrounding muscle structure, leading to what could be massive internal bleeding. Worse this bleeding may not be identified before permanent damage (or death) occurs. I would like a discussion on this possible problem to begin, and I hope to have the many female fighters of our kingdom respond with their opinions.

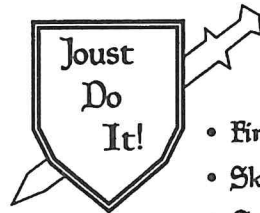

On non-fighting marshals. Authorizing marshals should think long and hard about the authorization of marshals who do not fight. I have been receiving some complaints lately, and I have begun to think this through. I personally believe that someone who marshals should be intimately familiar with fighting from the inside as well as from the sidelines. As of July, I would recommend that non-fighting marshals' authorization be allowed to lapse until the Marshallate has come to a reasonable conclusion on this issue.

On blow calibration. The Earl Marshals have come to the conclusion that the varied differences in blow calibration between the different kingdoms is just not a solvable problem. We thus recommend to all fighters who visit other kingdoms to calibrate as best you can while visiting. This seems reasonable. What I would like to discuss is the difference in calibration within our own kingdom, The Outlands. It is "common knowledge that the south hits harder than the north." Yeah, right. If this is true then I believe the north needs to start hitting harder so no question exists as to whether a blow was acceptable or not. I personally have not had problems with "too hard" shots, except when I go to Atlantia and get lifted off the ground. (That was a joke.) Further, some feel they have been hit too hard on places where no armor resides! Remember, we are cutting through chain mail or a steel helm. I'd like to see if we can reach some consensus on this, and yes I know this will be difficult.

Finally, as I related back in April, all the Earl Marshals have been charged by the Society Marshal in coming up with a rattan replacement. Does anyone have any ideas, any at all? Give me a call.

FROM THE KINGDOM CHRONICLER

Greetings from Helena!

For the last twenty issues this newsletter has been graciously edited by the good Lord Alwyn of Kittisford. During his tenure in this office Lord Alwyn was assisted greatly by the creative talents of Mistress Elaina de Sinister and Lady Tatiana. Thank you all for your dedication to this newsletter, the readership and the kingdom.

As some of you may remember I held this office prior to Lord Alwyn, and before that I served as the kingdom deputy under Mistress Ælflæd while she was the KC. I've been in the Society for sixteen years, nine of those I've spent in the Outlands. I firmly believe that each issue is for you, the membership of the Outlands. This is your publication. It represents the Outlands all over the known world. I want to encourage all of you to submit articles of interest. Don't be shy! If you have been working on a period piece be it armor, costuming, or any sort of art or science, please write and share your project with all of us. If you have thoughts on medieval philosophy or ideas specific to the modern aspects of our Society, please write and share those too. If you have fond memories of the Outlands, or if you write prose or poetry, send them in! If you are dying to share these things but are absolutely terrified to put pen to paper take a deep breath and know that you are in a bold majority—but we've got that figured out too. Just contact me or one of my deputies and we'll be happy to assist you in the writing. I will be holding a couple of pages each month for these sort of features.

Kingdom newsletters are required to have all the basic information of who's who and what's what, when and where. Still in order to make this newsletter something different, something Outlandish...we need your contributions. Please help us in this.

The center page this month is a form for Awards Recommendations. This form is NOT mandatory. It is only there as an option for those of you who may feel more comfortable using a set format for this purpose. Also, it provides a more organized means for the royal secretaries to maintain records.

In Service, Helena

FROM THE ARCHER GENERAL

Greetings Outlands Archers! The newest Royal Archer of the Outlands, Stephan of al-Barran, was invested by HRM Irel at Grand Outlandish. Stephan led a field of seven archers to claim this most revered title. Hats off to all of the competitors!

Draft copies of the Outlands Archery Handbook have been distributed to various gentles for proofing. When reprinted, initial distribution will be to Their Majesties, Captains of Archers, Deputies to the Archer General, Society Archery Marshal, Kingdom Earl Marshal and Seneschal. Marshals of the Field should ask their Captain of Archers for a copy.

If your Marshal of the Field Warrant (MOF) has expired and you wish to renew it, fill out and sign a new application for Archery Marshal. Renewals will be automatic as long as you are still a current national member and send me a completed renewal. If you have applied as a new MOF and have not yet heard back, you may function as a provisional MOF until you receive your card, but have your sponsoring Captain of Archers call me.

On a personal note, my lady and I moved this Spring, and I am still finding various correspondence in strange places. If you have written with an inquiry and I have not responded, please either send me another missive or call me on the farspeaker - until 10:00 p.m.

CLANN WARS

July 20-21, White Mountain

The battle cry has been raised and the gathering has been called! The Clanns MacTaggart and Ross will do battle on the field of honor on July 20th and 21st in the Cedar Creek Campgrounds in Ruidoso, New Mexico. The site is in beautiful mountain highlands, with potable water, modern shopping nearby, and a stream running through it. The weather in July is usually very mild with light rain in the afternoons so pack for all weather as it can get chilly at night. Since the site is on National Forest land space is limited so reservations are advisable. The site will open on Friday the 19th at 2:00 p.m. and close Monday the 22nd at 2:00 p.m.

On Saturday there will be melees and tourneys to be fought by both Heavy and Light weapons with teams chosen by random draw. There will also be many activities for non-combatants. Later, all are invited to participate in the Haggis cook off with three categories: best traditional haggis (self explanatory) best "I hate Haggis so I invented my own" (use your imaginations) and best Dessert Haggis. There are upright grills if you want to cook on site or need to heat up your concoctions. There will be Highland games for all, a Bardic competition and on Sunday there will be an Archery Tourney as well as Heavy and Light weapons tourneys.

Prizes will also be given for best Scottish/Celtic persona, accent, dress and camp. The prizes for the competitions are all handmade and donated by people from the Shire of Nahrun Kibirun and Clann Mactaggert. All food that is brought must be locked up in a sturdy box, locked in your vehicles, or slung from a tree as the winters have been very dry and there is a chance that bears might come down to the site in search of food, though the scent of Haggis may keep them away. There will be limited storage space on site. Similarly for that reason there are no pets allowed and beauty supplies and such should be locked up. There will be guards to add to the period atmosphere and to keep the bears out but please plan accordingly. Site fees are $9 dollars for members and $12 dollars for non-members and children under 12 are free. Please send reservations to the autocrat and make checks payable to: SCA-White Mountain. Contact the autocrat before coming as the site is in Lincoln National Forest and there is always the possibility of cancellation due to dry weather.

DEFENDER OF THE LORE OF BLAIDDWYN

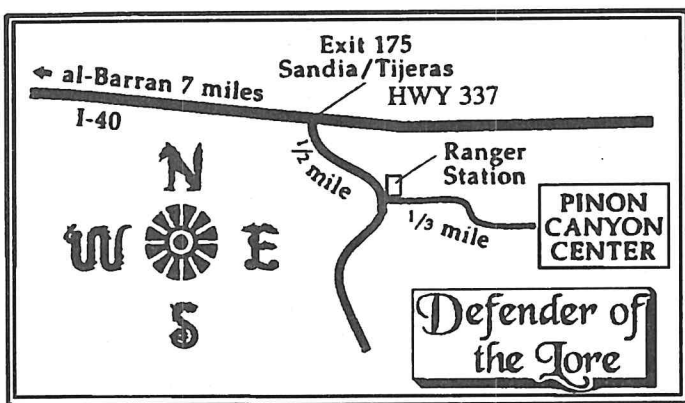

July 20, al-Barran

Warriors of the Outlands, the Incipient College of Blaiddwyn in the glorious Barony of al-Barran does cry for your help! A great and terrible Dragon has been eating through our library and threatens to devour our precious Lore of Blaiddwyn! Our current Defender, Oengus of Greymist, has valiantly held the beast at bay for many months, but, alas, he grows weary under the continual onslaught so a new and stronger, (if that is indeed possible) Defender must be found to battle this vicious creature and at last bring about an end to the threat of the horrible BookWyrn.

The challenge will be met on Saturday, July 20th at the YWCA camp in al-Barran. The site will open at 9 A.M. and will close at Midnight. No camping permitted. You may arrange for crash space by contacting the autocrat. Site fee is $5.00 for members, $7.00 for non-members. Children under 16 are free. No Pets Allowed.

There will be three heavy weapons tourneys and three light weapons tourneys starting at 11 A.M. Each tourney will be fun, unique and creative. Prizes will be awarded to the winner of each tourney. The winner of the Argent tourney, the third in both categories, will be awarded with a piece of fine silver! The first, second and third place winners in each tourney will each be allotted points. Whichever individual has the most points overall will be declared the new Defender of the Lore of Blaiddwyn!

A children's pavilion is being graciously provided by Lady Albreana to entertain your young lords and ladies whilst you attend to the tourneys. After the tourneys there will be a Hunkerhausen competition, a four-way chess tournament. and an archery shoot. A game room will also be provided to relax after the fighting and escape the afternoon heat. In the evening court will be held at the attending nobles discretion.

Following court, a Quest will begin which must include a heavy weapons fighter, a light weapons fighter, and two children as well as one or two other people. At the end of the quest, the Defender of the Lore will face off against the BookWyrn that threatens us in whichever form it takes. Whether it will be the great, roaring, filthy beast that is its natural form (for the heavy) or the sly, sneaky, human form it polymorphs into to sneak into our library (for the light).

After the quest, there will be a potluck feast of celebration! The feast fee is a contribution of food. The main course of Dragon Meat will be provided by the College (by way of the Defender's victory, of course.) Along with the feast will be an Open Tavern! Brewers of the Outlands please make what you can for the enjoyment of the populace. A prize will be awarded for the libation that proves to be the most popular.

After it grows dark outside, a Bardic will begin. It is at the Bardic that our Lore truly prospers. Bards, please write an original song, story or poem that includes references to the College of Blaiddwyn and the Silver Wolf that is our symbol. If you wish, you may now also include references to Dragon (BookWyrms) slaying, but the first two qualifiers must still be met. The winner of this endeavour will have their work transcribed into the Blaiddwyn Book of Lore.

LONELY MOUNTAIN DEFENDER

July 26-28, Lonely Mountain

Nineteen years ago dragons threatened the peaceful shire of Anlieplic Dun, known as the Lonely Mountain. Fires raged, smoke billowed, and our citizens cowered in fear. A call went out through the known world, a plea for fighters to come forward in battle to choose one who could defend us against the fingerprinting beasts. Thus came about the first Lonely Mountain Defender, and in all of the years since Anlieplic Dun has been well defended and the dragons driven from our mountain. Alas, the dragons have come back in force this summer. Fires have burned all too close to our fair shire, and our current defender is singed and smoke-stained. It is time to choose an heir to the position, a brave soul who can stand for yet another year against our dragon enemies!

We, the citizens of Anlieplic Dun, invite one and all to the 20th Lonely Mountain Defender on the weekend of July 26-28. The site has changed for this year, due to fires, so Lonely Mountain Defender will be held just past the Pajarito Mountain Ski Area at Camp May. (See map.) All are encouraged to participate in our many fighting and non-fighting tournaments to choose the one who will stand against evil for us! We will have heavy and light fighting, as well as our usual array of games for non-fighters. Join us, relax, and be merry. We do ask that all who come to our tourney be very aware of the dragons and their ways. Any manner of fire will attract the beasts, so we must at this time plan on a cold site. No fires of any kind will be allowed, not even the contained fires of stoves nor cigarettes (except with the confines of your own wagon). To ease this discomfort, we the citizens of Anlieplic Dun will offer the basic makings for cold meat sandwiches in place of our usual Saturday night feast. Bring the rest of your meal and join us in the meadow so that the warmth of fellowship can make up for the lack of hot food.

It is remotely possible that these restrictions may be eased before the event if the monsoon season starts early. In the normal course of things, afternoon rains are the rule of this event, so we suggest our guests be prepared for rain as well as drought. As ever is the case, the site is also without water of any kind. Please bring plenty of your own and extra as well for the waterbearers and for those who may not have read these words. We don't have a water buffalo so come prepared with extra water and other drinks.

The site fee for this year's Defender will be $6 per person, $3 for children 6-12 years of age, and free for children under 6. Make checks payable to SCA-Anlieplic Dun. Merchants are asked to donate a prize for one of the events in place of a merchenting fee.

If you think you have the courage to face what might happen this year, we invite you to answer the call of adventure and test your mettle to see if you can last the weekend through. We again offer more archery, more fine prizes (Sir Mark has promised to donate something) and more instructions on shooting and making archery gear. Bring your bows, bring your arrows, bring your questions, bring your enthusiasm for fun. You'll have a place to use them all. We welcome heavy weapons and fencers also.

This year's site offers some indoor crash space by reservations and a most spectacular setting. The site has lots of trees, water and a nice indoor feast area. RESTRICTIONS: No glass containers. All animals must be leashed at all times. If the year is dry, probably no fires will be allowed, including torches. This is a state park and all violators will be asked to leave. No one under 18 years of age will be allowed on site without a parent or legal guardian.

The feast will start at approximately (very approximately) 6:00 p.m. Following dinner, THL Helena will be running the Knackered Stag tavern for the enjoyment of all. Evening activities will also include a Bear Pit Tourney for all fighters who wish to attend. And since we couldn't have fighting and a tavern without song, we invite all who are willing to sing or tell a story to join us at the bardic circle.

On Sunday morning we will hold an archery contest in which the winner will be presented a prize of a half-dozen finely fletched arrows. For the more than competent marksman there will be the William Tell event where a single arrow will decide upon whose shoulders the title of William Tell will rest. There will also be knife and axe throw contests for which cloaks will be presented as the prize.

Random Drawings for all! There will be a drawing for a man's dagger for which the drawing fee will be a working piece of armor. There will be another drawing for a dagger for which the drawing fee is a piece of garb. These drawing fees will all be used for our new fighters and local hospitality.

We hope you can all join us in this, our first ever undertaking to honor a timeless pastime of pleasure, sport & fun. For more information on this event you are invited to contact the autocrats at your leisure.

A CRAFTY CONVERGENCE

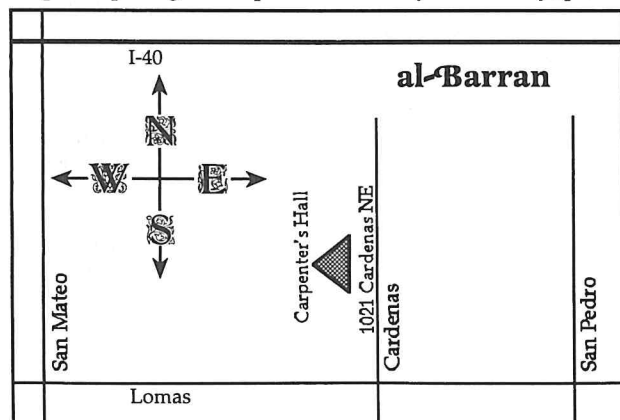

August 3-4, al-Barran

Inspired by the Queen's Arts event that was held in Dragonsspine last autumn, we will gather to share and learn about various medieval arts and crafts as they are practiced in the SCA. Due to space and time limitations, we will only be focusing on static arts, but plan to include dancing and music in the evening revelry. On Sunday we will have a plunder tourney in conjunction with the barony's contribution to the City of Albuquerque's Renaissance Faire. On Saturday the site will open (at Carpenter's Hall) at 9:00 a.m. and will close at 11:00 p.m. On Sunday we will meet at Roosevelt Park at Noon and the site will close by 5:00 p.m.

At the Carpenter's Hall we will discuss a number of topics relevant to the pursuit of our hobby through guided discussions and through sideboard, unguided discussions. We hope to have exhibits and displays for all of these subjects and anything else you can think of—maybe some Hairdressing, Non-Alcoholic Beverages, Bookbinding, Musical Instruments... Creative is our middle name!

MOUNTAIN ENDURO VI

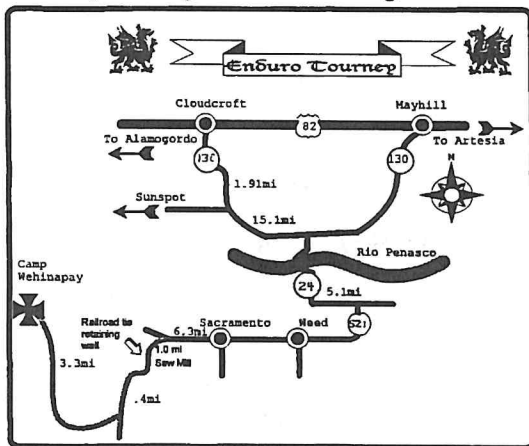

August 25-27, Citadel

The Citadel of the Southern Pass and House Gilbert invite one and all to attend the sixth annual Mountain Enduro Quest. This year's Enduro is based on the highland games and the lore of Scotland. Just as before, the more you know about Scotland, kilts, haggis, etc. the better off you will be.

The site is the Wehinapay Boy Scout Camp outside of Cloudcroft, New Mexico. The days are often warm, the nights are chilly and it almost always rains (ok, ok, it always rains). With these thoughts in mind come up to one of the strangest events in the Outlands. You will need to bring clothing to meet almost any condition and your sturdiest footgear to embark upon your adventure in the Highlands of Scotland. This is a dry site — absolutely no alcohol in any form is allowed! Also, no pets are to be brought onto the site. (i.e., no Scotch or Scotties!)

The Enduro Quest will be run on Saturday starting around noon. It will be run rain or shine. This year we will run teams of seven questors consisting of two heavy weapons fighters, two light weapons fighters, one or two Sherpa and one or two noncombatants.

Saturday evening we will be having the traditional feast of beef stew in the Dining Hall.

The Dining Hall will also be the site of the Bardic Competition Saturday night. Sunday is Tourney day. There will be at least two heavy lists, two light lists and one boffer list (speaking of children, yet again they will have a special role in the Enduro Quest, but more of that later). For directions to the site please consult the map. For more information feel free to call the autocrats (not after 10 p.m. please).

Greetings to the populace of the Known World from the Incipient Shire of Lost Souls! All are most heartily invited to join us in this, our first large event, in one of most beautiful areas in our kingdom, Durango, Colo. Our dear shire has been caught in a small border dispute over the claim to the Silver Pass (Red Mountain) between Silverton and Ouray. Presently the map draws the mountain on the Atenveldt side of the border in the Principality of Artemisia. The outcome of this event will determine who holds the pass for the next year. The Principality of Artemisia has accepted our challenge! The site will open at noon on August 30th and will close at noon on September 2nd. This gorgeous location is on 52 acres of trees and meadows located about eight miles NE of Durango. Authorizations shall be registered with and kept on file by the Minister of the Lists or other designated official of each kingdom.

3. Waivers for SCA Combat-Related Activities: Waivers for SCA Combat-Related Activities are required for participation in these activities. The SCA General Membership waiver adopted July 1995 is the text required for use in the United States. Alternative texts may be approved by the Board for use in other countries. Proof of waiver will be established as follows: a) To be authorized, or to engage as an authorized participant in SCA combat or related activities, a person must present a current valid membership card indicating that the appropriate waiver is on file with the SCA, Inc. or they must sign a waiver with the same text pursuant to the General Waiver Policy (G&PD 19) and comply with all the provisions of that policy. b) To train for authorization at SCA-sponsored practice sessions, a person must either present a current valid membership card indicating that the appropriate waiver is on file with the SCA, Inc. or they must sign a waiver with the same text pursuant to the General Waiver Policy (G&PD 19) and comply with all the provisions of that policy.

The witnessing marshal must be explicitly authorized to perform this function by the Earl Marshal of the kingdom. The marshal who authorizes a minor person for any form of SCA combat-related activity must be the Kingdom Earl Marshal or the Principality Marshal. This need not be the same person as the witnessing marshal.

6. Medical Authorization for Minors: Any minor involved in SCA combat-related activities at an event MUST have a parent or legal guardian present at the event or be in possession of a properly-executed Medical Authorization Form for Minors designating some adult person present at the event as able to authorize medical treatment for that minor in the case of any emergency. G&PD 19. SCA GENERAL WAIVER POLICY (ADOPTED APRIL 1996 EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1996)

1. All non-members or persons without a blue membership card attending any event sponsored by a branch of the SCA, Inc. must execute a waiver with the text adopted by the Board or Directors at each such event, practice or function. Members that have a combat waiver on file at the Member Services Office and have a blue membership card are not required to sign additional waivers. Kingdoms may, at their discretion, require individual waivers even from members with combat waivers on file. An individual waiver must be executed for each minor. As much as possible, Minor Waivers shall be printed or copied on colored paper to help easily differentiate them from adult waivers.
2. The text of all waivers must be the language approved by the Board of Directors for waiver usage, subject to individual modern jurisdictional requirements. Such alternative texts must be approved by the Board of Directors prior to usage. Roster style waivers are acceptable providing that the full text of the waiver language is included.
3. An event, for the purposes of this section only, is defined as any recreation function announced in either branch, Kingdom, or Principality newsletter. Business meetings, demos, guild meetings, dance practices or planning sessions are specifically excluded from these provisions. Combat or Fighter practices are not excluded and waivers must be collected from those actively participating in the combat related activities at such practices. Any function at which combat related activities will occur fall under the auspices of this waiver policy, regardless of what other activities may be occurring at the function. If there is a doubt about whether a specific function falls under this policy, the Kingdom Seneschal is directly empowered by the board to make that determination and report that same in their next regularly scheduled report. (Short form definition - if you are required to be wearing either armor or garb, or to have a bow in your hands to participate-you need to sign waivers.)
4. The local Seneschal, or other officer in charge of any function at which waivers will be required, is responsible for ensuring that a copy of that Kingdoms law and the current Organizational Handbook are available at that function.
5. All original executed waivers shall be sent to the Member Services Office by each branch on a monthly basis. Waivers should be separated by function and each grouping clearly labeled with the following information: name of branch/name of function/date of function. Copies of waivers need not be kept at the local or Kingdom level.
6. The Member Services Office shall maintain the waivers as follows: Minors Waivers: 20years/Adult Waivers: 7 years.
7. The Members Services Offices will have pads of preprinted adult and minor waivers for sale on a cost basis beginning June 1, 1996.

These statistics are compiled by Jarl Gunwaldt Gulbjörn.

The kingdom group counts are based on the geographical divisions of the kingdoms. The local group counts are based on my knowledge of each group's boundaries and the growth of the Outlands. Some divisions are very traditional in nature and others are obvious from the geographical surroundings. The homesteaders are those addresses which fall outside reasonable distances to any group center at all.

This is not a membership count, only a record of those people receiving the July Outlandish Herald; family, associate, and suspended memberships are not known from the labels.
